

RHEIMS GRAND PRIX

7

The start of the Rheims Grand Prix with the drivers jockeying for position in the first telling seconds of the 310 mile circuit.

21

All the crack drivers were in it, Ascari, Villorosi and Farina, with No. 20 the stripped Formula II Maserati, driven by Gonzales, always challenging the leader Fangio in another Maserati.

47

At the last bend Fangio in No. 12 was closely followed by Mike Hawthorn, the twenty-four year old British engineering student who joined the Ferrari team six months ago, and it was Hawthorn's win at over 113 miles an hour ⁶⁶ - anybody got a half pint.

AT THE FLAG.