Jumping Jeephosphat and likewise Jespers Creepers!
The motto in ~~the~~^{THIS} obstacle course for public service drivers ^{HELD IN AMERICA} is jeep right on to the end of the road.

26

Forty miles an hour, forty gallons of mud to the square inch.

47

Home James and don't spare the hoses.

Goodbye to the Queen with a thousand years of royal lineage behind her, but better perhaps, au revoir, come again, we've loved having you, to the woman in whose face shines the very essence of motherhood.

74

Friendly Queen Salote of the Friendly Islands we will always remember you smiling in the rain. God speed on your homeward journey.

JEEP-STAKES! RIDGERUNNERS' OWN ROADEO

Jumping Jeeps — in a world championship road-eo, at Yakima, Washington! The hill climb is a feature of competition on a rugged course situated in a natural bowl.

Ridgerunners, these competitors are called — jeep drivers who do rescue work and other services when they're not riding for fun and thrills!

The waterhole next hitting the drink at 40 miles an hour.... churning up a drenching spray!

The muddy dip doesn't seem to bother the Ridgerunners ... they're becoming a big splash in the racing world!
