

DUTCH CELEBRATE 40th AIR FORCE ANNIVERSARY

6 Majestic B-47 bombers flew over Soesterberg Airfield to open the flying display, by N.A.T.O. aircraft,

~~and Dutch pilots.~~ Many types of the latest fighters and

20 bombers used by the North Atlantic Powers were on ~~main~~ view.

Meteors were flown with outstanding skill.

Queen Juliana now saw, by way of contrast, one of the oldest planes in the world, a French Caudron, made in the days when they were called flying machines.

Nowadays France makes a
(crowd) ~~France sent a~~ jet fighter, the Mystere .

~~One of our~~ a Hawker Hunter ~~crashed~~ crashed through the sound barrier.

One animal
~~They poor~~ ~~they~~ must have wished he were an elec hare ~~one of the electric~~
~~kind.~~ Finally, the biggest bomber, the B-36.