NATO AIRSHOW at SOESTERBERG

Length: 142 metres.

Date of event: July 18th '53.

NATO-airshow at the Aviation-field of Soesterberg, Holland, on the occasion of the 40th anniversary of the Dutch Military Air Navigation. Several NATO countries had sent their deputations to this feast. About 200.000 spectators followed with great interest the show. H.M. Queen Juliana and H.R.H. Prince Bernhard, military and civil authorities from home and abroad, were present at this great program. The K.L.M. (Royal Dutch Airlines) showed their latest acquisition: the Super Constellation. The last word in the domain of the Supersonics 'planes, was for the British Hawker Hunter, which broke through the sound-barrier.
