

INTERNATIONAL HORSE SHOW

The White City was the mecca of some of the world's finest horsemen in the 34th International Show. Colonel Llewellyn was up on Monty.

4 Lt. d'Inzeo rode Mistero.... He cleverly kept in the saddle when the greasy turf almost had the horse down. Prince Bernhard, an accomplished show rider himself, saw a member ~~of~~ the famous Spanish School of Vienna demonstrating a special jump, ~~at~~ all four feet in the air at once.

(67) ~~Miss~~ Miss Pat Smythe, on Prince Hal, won the Ladies' Debutante Stakes. Miss Bonnaud (France) came second. After the judges' verdict Pat Smythe received the trophy, very worthily won.
