COMPLETE DESCRIPTION OF SCENES

Attached herewith is some of of official hand outs etc..
Also the Sunday Express, which in general gives a overall report on the proceedings..

The story shot in this order...

The cars are tuned and pushed out of the pits etc, various shots Various shots of some of the famous drivers, in most cases the number on the car gives the identification of driver, one driver with sunshade over him, was a fancied English driver, A.P.R.Rolt..unfortunately these drivers in most cases do not appear until the last minute....

The flag and start of the Grand Prix...

Various shots from the bridge over track...

Various spectator shots etc....

Various shots at Becketts corner, showing a wide pan, oildrums
in the foreground acting as markers, shot of the score board showing the position of the cars..

A few shots at Maggotts Curve, showing the cars coming straight towards the camera and then veering away to the right..

Ascari the winner (car 5) flashing past the winning post and afterwards the crowd around his car etc

The presentation of awards by The Hon Max Aitken, consetrating on the putting around Ascari's neck the flowers and cup.

Afterwards a pan on the winning drivers of the day, Ascari
in middle with Moss on left Ken Wharton on right,

It may or may not be a laggh, but I covered in quick motion the mad get away from Silverstone, to anyone having had the experience, it seems that everyone is trying to emulate Ascari.Moss & Hawthorn more so on Saturday after the prize giving traffic stood still fr over one hour, and then after that, everybody goes nuts.....
