

CHANNEL WINS

22-yr-old Kathleen Mayoh, of Farnworth, near Bolton, at St. Margarets Bay, entered the Butlins mass Channel swim, with the lure of a £500 prize. Across the water at Cap Gris Nez, at 5.42 <sup>a.m.</sup> ~~in the morning~~, competitors had so much grease on, even gendarmes couldn't tell them ~~apart. A school teacher from Denmark, Elna Andersen, was~~

~~making her 6th attempt on the Channel. Ken Wray (Southport)~~
30 apart. A school teacher from Denmark, Elna Andersen, was making her 6th attempt on the Channel. Ken Wray (Southport)
his third. <sup>and</sup> But this time the Channel was winning. <sup>for</sup> Even Kathy 43 Mayoh, who swam France-to-England last year, found it too much.

7 After eleven hrs-and-a-half Ken Wray had to leave the water.
58 For tired Channel swimmers they ought to have a crane.
However, Ken finally managed to scramble out, beaten by the 65 cold after a gallant try. So it was 3rd time unlucky.

Hard luck, Ken. Another third effort was made by 20-year-old Margaret Feather, encouraged by Egyptian Fiancé. The 80 veteran, 56-yr-old Ned Bernie stuck it 17 hrs and got within 2-and-a-half miles of Dover. Cramp <sup>defeats!</sup> ~~beat~~ ~~Vic Birkett (Ragbourne).

Poor Kathleen Mayoh was back, defeated like the rest of them beaten 3-qrs-of-mile from 100 Calais, after 17 hrs. Radio kept touch at night. Margaret Feather retired. Now Ned Bernie. But what a hard way to try to win £500! The Pools are starting soon.~~

Beaten
Vic Birker. ~~defeated~~ like the rest, Kathy Mayoh y back. Radio kept touch at night. Margaret Feather retired. ~~He~~ J. Neil Bernie. TB x a hard way = try = win £500!
