

FLASHES:

By the Ship Canal to Manchester came the vessel that picked up Roy Speer, one of the survivors of the B.36 crash. Hear Captain Downing.

Shy - Sergeant Speer was still a very ~~sick~~ man when he was brought off the ship. But he knew how fortunate he really was. After saying good-bye to the Captain he was put into an ambulance and taken to the U.S. air ~~station~~ <sup>base</sup> Burton Wood.

- Crathie Church, near Balmoral, drew a ~~small~~ <sup>4000</sup> crowd of local people and holidaymakers, hoping to catch a glimpse of the Queen when she came to attend ~~the~~ morning service. Balmoral, like Sandringham, affords a really private holiday for the royal family, but it was too much to expect that on Sunday morning there should be no crowd. They were rewarded by a gracious smile. Now, may the Queen have her holiday in peace.
