68 n. KUKO JOINS THE ASSOCIATION OF "NOAH'S ARK".-

Kuko is an affable chimpanzee residing in the Barcelona Zoo, who works like any businessman and who is now receiving the news of his election to join the humorous association denominated "Noah's Ark". It does not seem to have impressed him much.

Kuko loves children, although this tot seem to be rather apprehensive of the ape's attention.

He does not care whether the wine is called brandy or "cognac" he just drinks it in a gulp. Apparently he wants more...

When his small friend does not look he runs out with the cycle and the owner just cries at this loss. But Kuko has only used it to go the premises of "Noah's Ark" to attend the meeting held in his honor.

The jovial chimpanzee scrupulously eats together with his colleagues in the association; these gentlemen all bear such surnames as Lion, Hen, Rabbit, Ass, Cow, etc. etc. Lunch is consumed at an amazing speed, dish after dish comes and disappears. Well, Kuko, that is not good manners! You must not put your foot on the table. Oh, please, let me have my napkin.

Kuko is condecorated with the badge of the Association. There are no roses without terms or banquets without speeches, and Kuko as the guest of honor must survive the ordeal. Thanks God, it is finished!
