

AFTER 7 YEARS RUSSIAN WIFE FREED

The plane touched down at Northolt and Mrs. Clara Hall was really in England at last; She and her little 6-year-old ^{son} Nicholas. Her Mother-in-Law, Mrs. Florence Hall met her. Clara, 29, is Russian. ~~Her British~~ ^{She married her} husband ~~was~~ was a cipher-clerk at the ~~British~~ Embassy, in Moscow. ~~Now,~~ unexpectedly released she and the boy will go to Ottawa, where ~~she~~ ^{Mr. Black now} works.

Are you going to settle down in Canada.

All good luck to Mrs. Clara Hall.

Another air arrival, at Lympne, was Group Captain Peter Townsend, the former Equerry to the Queen, and now ^a British Air Attache to Brussels. He has come over to attend an Air Ministry conference and visit the Farnborough Flying Display.

Denver's ~~Manhattan~~ Country Club welcomed a very famous player, President Eisenhower himself. ~~Even the Presidents~~ ^{have to take a holiday,} ~~as~~ Ike was relaxing in the most nerve-racking pursuit outside work. The old game proved that even a great man can lead the ball to the hole but can't make it sink.

August 18, 1953

Masig: Spring Parade (Para) PN 154
Greatest Show (tag) GSOE- PN 703
" " (Prelude) PN 683

Klein
Joyce
Non
Issue #1

SPORTS

A ROUND WITH AMERICA'S "FIRST GOLFER"

Denver's Cherry Hill Country Club welcomes a vacationist who next to being President of the United States — well, he certainly enjoys the game of golf.

The nation's first golfer turns this day over to the news photographers ... permitting them to follow his foursome, which includes Colorado's Governor Thornton.

Addressing the ball with presidential authority!

Then, as the cameras grind, the nattily attired Chief Executive obliges with a putting display...

Another try ... despite lenses pointing from every direction, his aim's almost perfect.

"Body english" and all, President Eisenhower's a typical American golfer!

ALL-STAR FOOTBALL COLLEGIANS BOW TO DETROIT LIONS

Upward of 93 thousand in Chicago's Soldiers' Field see passing mastery give the Detroit Lions the upper hand. Opposition is provided by the College All-Stars in this annual Charity classic.

The arm of Bobby Layne — number 22 — is moving the professional champions goalward. Bobby, formerly of Texas, completes 19 out of 30 tosses tonight.

the touchdown pass is from Layne to End Cloyce Box...

Fourth quarter: Layne continuing his record-breaking passing attack..... the receiver is Doak Walker.

Now watch ... the kind of "quarterbacking" that makes the game of football a scientific spectacle!

Halfback Bob Hoernschmeyer goes over for the Detroit t.d.

The College All-Stars have some sparkling moments, too.