

QUEEN SEES BRAEMAR GATHERING

The mountain-fringed Princess Royal Park was crowded by nearly 25,000 people to welcome the Queen and the Duke of Edinburgh, who were received by Lord Aberdeen and Captain Farquharson of Invercauld. Another most welcome visitor was that well beloved daughter of Scotland, the Queen Mother.

Big attraction of any Highland Gathering is Putting the Heavy Stone, 28 lbs. The winner, George Clark.

A very pleasant diversion, the Junion Highland Championship.

Audry Raffan and the other clever young dancers gave way to athletics again. This time Clark was sending the 22-lb hammer almost as far as England.

Yes, they have some bananas, the spectators, not the brow laddies tossing the caber. Here's Gray to begin with.

(crowd) This event too was ~~was~~<sup>won</sup> by George Clark. ~~It~~

In all the royal record of the Braemar Gathering, this feat<sup>'s</sup> was among the finest.
