Premandels

On Town Moor the stage was set for a truly royal St. Leger. For this Northern Derby there was almost a record crowd, fashionable and popular. There was no doubt everybody manted the Queen's horse to win and money on Aureole simply THE PRIM THE OWEL EX poured into the bookies' satchells. In good time for the 30 He Back 2.30, which her horse won, Her Majesty arrived.

AN ARMISTICE STRENGTHENED THE HOPE FOR A DURABLE Sir Winston was the Queen's guest. Down in the paddock Aureole was the centre of attraction and the hopes of his royal ewner must have been high, though many experts pointed out that the sons of Hyperion are rarely stayers. Mountain King, not strongly fancied. Timberland, a Brench horse. Premonition. Jockey W.H. Carr was optimistic chances. Will by Karling Will Bonz Mill arede's about hi ME, COULD BRING ENGLAND A SURPRISING VICTORY.

There was only one filly running. The parade was led by Manual Aureole, followed by Mountain King, Gordon Richards up.... W. Rickaby rode Empire Honey. There was no trouble at 10 content the start. The eleven runners were smartly got away by THROUGH THE ARERNCON. THE BATSMEN HAD Mr. Marsh.

As was expected Terek II acted as pace-maker for his stable companion, the much fancied French Horse Northern Light II. Certainly it was a finebace he set. But for the much regretted absence of Pinza, here were the year's finest 3year-olds in action. Terek II still led, Northern Light almost on his heels, Aureole next and Premonition on TAST TWO WARTHOLISTING THE CASUALLIES AND MONEY INVOLVED. DUCHTIT WAS MORE DEADLY THAN Her Majesty now saw Premonition pass Northern Light and take the lead. At this point Carr made his effort on Aurecle, only to find that the horse couldn't respond. Premonition looked as if he could go two more furlongs as he passed the post, winner by three lengths.

Everybody was disappointed Aureole didn't win for the Queen but all congratulated the owner of Premonition and his E-CADET TRAINING COMPANY AT SEBLEMBER. Flockey E. Smith. IE SOUDIER ON A RECUEAR ENCAGENER

IT IS UNDERSTOOD THAT HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS WILL, EARLY IN

MLY IF THE

PARIS, M

ENGLAND WER

PARTNERSHIP

MR. MEHRI

SANOHURST.

e the bW

6.49PM.