

JULIANA UNVEILS ARNHEM MEMORIAL

~~On the 9th Anniversary of the Battle of Arnhem a memorial to the airborne men who lost their lives in that heroic engagement~~

On the 9th Anniversary of the Battle of Arnhem, a memorial to the airborne men who lost their lives was unveiled by Queen Juliana. 200 pilgrims from Britain mingled with wartime members of the Dutch Resistance to pay honour to the fallen.

(L la) It was a gracious action of ~~the~~ Queen Juliana to the memory of those who fell. General Urquhart, who commanded the 1st Airborne Div., led the British pilgrimage. Very narrowly the Arnhem troops missed the complete success that would have shortened the war.
