

FLASHES!

British Heavyweight Champion Don Cockell has the name of Bacillieri on the punch-bag. The Italian is his next opponent, 7 Unlike the punch-bag, he can hit back; though Don's sure he won't get the chance. Joe Jacobs is promoting the fight, at Leicester on October 5th. Good luck to Don ~~Bombard~~ Cockell.

Everybody nowadays wants to know our innermost thoughts. A woman in Lyons was the guinea pig in the latest experiment, made by an inventive French physician. All you need for this kind of mental ex-rays is a clear conscience. ~~I must~~ ^{must never know it} never tell My husband, when he was away last week I slept without a hot water bottle... The machine can also tell what you think when you're asleep. One way and another it must have been nice to live in grand^{mama's}mother's day.

7 Bless me if they're not now carrying much the same idea down to fish. Hitherto nobody ^{'s} ~~has~~ ever known what fishes talk about, so along comes this new apparatus, an undersea microphone, ⁷ ~~so~~ now we can hear what ^{fish} ~~fish~~ think about things in general. When it's published it'll make ^{even} Dr. ~~W.H.~~ Kinsey blush. ~~(tape)~~ Fortunately we don't know the language. It might be very unflattering.
