

Outside the Kansas City home of Robert Greenlease Pressmen learned that the millionaire's 6-year-old son Bobby, kidnapped from his school ten days before, was dead. From the <sup>near school</sup> parking lot Bobby was <sup>taken</sup> kidnapped by a woman. Greenlease paid over 200,000-pounds ransom, 48-hours <sup>64</sup> later the boy's body was found 50-miles away shot in the head, buried outside the home of the woman charged with kidnapping, Mrs. Bonnie Brown Heady. Charged with her is 37-year-old Carl Hall.
Still wanted by the police was Thomas John Marsh, 37-year-old ex-convict. The appalling crime, recalling the worst of the gangster days, has shocked the whole of America. The sympathy of ~~a~~ rents everywhere goes out to <sup>the little boy's</sup> Mother and Father.
