

EDEN, DULLES & BIDAULT START TALKS

Early evening arrival at London Airport, met by Anthony Aldrich, Eden and U.S. Ambassador ~~Whannan~~, was John Foster Dulles.

The U.S. Secretary of State is here for informal talks with Eden and Bidault. A get-together to ease the international situation, which it seems can always do with a little easing. As Mr. Dulles went on to say -

68
~~Always~~ in Washington ~~to attend~~ delegates to the Inter-Parliamentary Union heard President Eisenhower get to the root of the matter.

October 13, 1953

Misc.: Maneuver March (PD) PN 561
Klein
Abbott
Non
Issue #17

CONFERENCE TABLE, NOT BATTLEFIELD..... PRESIDENT ADDRESSES INTER-PARLIAMENTARY MEETING

In the House of Representatives chamber, delegates of 32 nations hear President Eisenhower's welcoming address. Founded in 1889, the "Interparliamentary Union" fosters conciliation and arbitration in the settlement of disputes among nations. Strongly backing their program, the President tells them.....(TALK TO END) 88.

KOCD

25344

3
3
2

98.
29
75
8.
4381
80
518
160
678