

MISS FRANCE IS NOW MISS WORLD

~~Who was to be the loveliest girl in the world? Judges~~ ~~included Margaret Lockwood and David Niven.~~ Leading S beauties of 15 countries were at the Lyceum for the Mecca contest. Miss Sweden - very fetching in the evening dress parade.

Miss Holland - indicating that the Low Countries are high up in the beauty field.

(Crowd)

Next item, the swim suit parade; all the girls this year in the fashionable one-piece costume. Miss France, Denise Perrier, an 18-year-old student, looked hard to beat.

(Judges)

From Germany came Wilma Kanders, 20, a mannequin.

Miss Britain was Brenda Mee, who won the national bathing beauty contest at Morecambe this year and looked good enough to win now.... Marina Papaelia, Miss Egypt, ~~winner~~ ~~(winner)~~ Weighing up all points, face, figure, and style,
the judges, who included Margaret Lockwood and David Niven,
gave the silver rose bowl to Miss France

(Press)

Second, Miss Greece (~~first~~) third, Miss Egypt (~~right~~). Also for the winner £500. Good for Miss France.