

PARIS SETS WINTER HAIR STYLES

High class beauties and high class antiques were got together when a leading Paris coiffeur co-operated with another luxury-providing establishment to present a novel hair-fashion display. Some rare earrings matched the new styles perfectly. Then <sup>some</sup> valuable ~~gem~~ of Venetian glass <sup>wear</sup> seemed to have been the inspiration of another hair-do.

Apparently the idea is that a hostess should dress her hair in harmony with the leading motif of the interior decoration - not just <sup>fling</sup> ~~fling~~ it up anyhow and stick a few hairpins in and say, I just can't do anything with it today; I've just washed it.
