

BRAVO, CARDIFF: ALL BLACKS DEFEATED

Not one of the 50,000 at Armes Park will ever forget this game. Where Llanellŷ had failed earlier in the week could even Cardiff succeed and inflict the first defeat of the tour on the All Blacks. The great players of this grand Welsh club, Cardiff, were stimulated by the occasion, not overawed. ~~Their back division can make a good claim to be the best in the world, it soon went into the attack with a speed that bewildered the New Zealanders.~~ ~~Rowlands~~

35 Rowlands ~~Mungampanhama~~ punted across and great was the joy in Cardiff when it was seen that Vice Captain Judd had touched down.

Rowlands ~~himself~~ converted. What a great start.

But seven-minutes later Cardiff were penalised and from fully 50 yards out the All Blacks left-wing, Jarden, scored a goal.

Cardiff attacked again, this time Rowlands got over himself, near the corner flag.... He took the kick but failed to add the goal points. ~~At~~ half time Cardiff led 8-points-to-3

It was almost unbearably exciting. So powerful is the New Zealanders' pack, many wondered whether by sheer ~~weight~~ ^{weight} the forwards would not wear Cardiff down. ~~Llewellyn~~ at full-back was magnificent under severe pressure, so was his opposite number, the unshakable Scot.

There was no score in the second half, so Cardiff really had secured the scalp of the All Blacks at last. What a tonic to the game.
