

ANOTHER FREEDOM: LONDON HONOURS MR. ATTLEE

To London Guildhall drove with unusual ceremony o it occur
Mr. and Mrs. Clement Attlee. The Leader of the Opposition was accorded the highest honour the City Fathers can award, the Freedom of the City. Pike-men of the Honourable Artillery Company linked the event with far off days when a free man could not be arrested within the city bounds. Mr. Attlee needs no such immunity.
This, by the way, was the last function in the historic hall till the blitzed roof has been permanently restored.

Many political friends and foes saw the former Prime Minister add his name to the illustrious roll. Which were which could not always be detected in the dim light.
