

WEMBLEY'S
~~MEMORANDUM~~ THE TARGET

A full house at Highbury saw a dramatic start in the Cup Tie against Aston Villa. ^(White shirts) That deadly shot outside-left Roper scored in two minutes. The cheers had ~~hardly~~ ^{immediately} barely died down when Arsenal almost scored again. The Midlanders' defence seemed to have no answer to an electric attack. The Gunners' line was moving ^{invincibly}, dynamically led by that brilliant sharp-shooter Holton. He scored number two.

43

On the previous Saturday at Highbury Villa were three down in twenty-minutes, when the match was abandoned. No such relief this time. Outside-right Milton got the third goal.

64

Villa's one and only goal came after 22-minutes. Outside-left McParland scored it.

77

Second-half. The amazing thing was that, despite their 5-1 defeat, Villa were often the better team. However, their wing-halves played too far up-field, a free pass to Arsenal forwards. Logie scotched all Villa hopes by scoring the fourth against them.

102

Ten minutes before the final whistle Roper made it 5-1. Arsenal are ~~the~~ ^{the} Cup favourites already.

At Elland Rd., Leeds entertained Spurs, tr 2 betr lyt
7 spec cd C f end 2, end.

At Elland Road, where Leeds entertained Spurs, ~~there~~ ^{THERE} was better light, and spectators could see from end to end.

Tottenham were a goal-up in one minute, scored by their outside-right, Walters. Leeds recovered from that shock.
Their outside-left, Tyrer, ~~that right back~~ beautifully placed the ball for Iggleden to head into the net.

166 A minute later Tyrer passed to John Charles. The centre forward scored Leeds' second goal.

194 After thirty-five minutes Spurs right-back Ramsey moved up field, gave a perfect pass to Bennett, to put Tottenham level.

(211) Leeds had stroke of luck, to regain the lead just before half-time. A pass by Kerfoot was deflected by Ramsey into his own goal.

(240) The second-half nearly went its whole course before Spurs for drew level. Awarded a corner ~~from~~ which they never even appealed, they saw the ball go to Bennett, from him into the net. Both teams lived to fight again.