M.P.s SEE HOW KENYA FIGHTS MAU MAU

Members of Parliament flying over Kikuyu territory - Mau Mau prison camps included - are seeing for themselves just how the political land lies in harassed Kenya. <sup>fact finding,</sup> Three Conservative, <sup>7</sup> three Labour members, are led by Walter Elliot, ~~whom~~ <sup>a</sup> prisoner tried to interest <sup>m</sup> in a petition, <sup>& delegates</sup> and <sup>f</sup> by surveying the country will bring first hand knowledge back to the House of Commons, where it isn't always conspicuous. Genial Walter Elliot greeted members of the Kikuyu Home Guard, men who co-operate with army and police in protecting settlers against Mau Mau assassins. ~~Not long recruited, and in training near the foothills of the ~~mountainous~~ Aberdars Mts., the civvy-soldiers are enjoying the new life in their own way.~~ You London clubs needing band-leaders with personality - <sup>Kerry</sup> ~~they're~~ <sup>lean on</sup> ~~all here.~~ A new irrigation scheme adding fertility to doing very well. <sup>80</sup> the Marigat district was seen to be ~~abundant~~. Giving Africans a more profitable share in the land and improving their housing, as at this Port Tudor estate which <sup>g'n</sup> ~~they help~~ <sup>helping</sup> to build themselves, will remove much of the discontent on which Mau Mau flourishes.

120 Britain awaits with interest the report that Mr. Elliot and his colleagues will bring back from Kenya.
