As Scotland kicked off at Murrayfield few people thought they would hold the All Blacks and almost deserve a draw. But the recast Fifteen forgot the bad period Scottish Rugger's 9 passing through. They played like heroes. Even that prince of full-back see Scott was thankful he was on the top NOW IT APPEARED THAT CAPTAIN WATERHOU of his form. CONSERVATIVE GROUP IN OPPOSITION TO THE GO

(crowd) While the scoreboard was still clean, if J.C. Marshall, London Scottish full-back, had landed a penalty, Scotland would have led at half-time. After the interval the game reached great heights. The Stewart College left-wing, Tommy Weatherstone, was only just beaten to the touch down by Scott and Jarden. Much the same thing happened at the other end, where the New Zealand right-wing, M.J. Dixon, was frustrated. But at last came the one and only score, Scott landed a penalty goal from 30 yards.
