Jack Solomons was on a winner, but not the game-as-they-come Sammy McCarthy. He soon knew he wasn't going to win t

~~get the European title~~ title in that ring.

Fifteenth and final round. Sammy still full of pluck but a mile behind on points.

The referee didn't have to think; Jean Sneyer won hands down, though everybody cheered the loser too. McCarthy'll have a longish rest before challenging Ronnie Calyton.
