

NEGUIB DEPOSED

The man most people thought would be unassailable boss of Egypt for years to come has ^{been} ~~consistently been~~ thrown out of office and put under armed-guard/house-arrest. The very army which brought him to power, ~~and ever~~ ~~which we thought his authority complete,~~ has cast him aside.

In his place now stands the actively/anti-British/Colonel Nasser. Only 36, Nasser wrested the office of Prime Minister from Neguib and ^{is now top dog} ~~rubs through the Revolutionary~~

40

~~Councils.~~ It remains to be seen whether, under Nasser, Egypt becomes a trouble spot of the Middle East.