

ROYAL TOUR: GARDEN PARTY, STATE BALL,
NEW COLOURS

20

The Corps of Staff Cadets received new Colours from the Queen at the Royal Military College, Duntroon. The college ranks with Sandhurst as the training ground of some of the finest officers in the world. Through it ^{passed} men who added lustre to the name of Anzac in the Dardanelles, in Flanders and On many fields in the second World War.

At Parliament House was held a State Ball which, everyone said, was the most brilliant function of its kind ever held in Australia. Mr Menzies escorted Her Majesty. ^{pl} Many of ~~the distinguished guests~~ remarked that the Queen seemed like a visitor from fairyland in her gown of white and silver brocade, tiara and garter sash.

At the Government House Garden party Her Majesty wore a lovely sapphire blue frock and wide-brimmed hat. She mingled with several-hundred people on a memorable afternoon.
