'Minders' Johnny
COHEN BEATS KELLY

King's Hall, Belfast. George Connell's promotion. Johnny Kelly defending the European Bantam title against the atomic onslaught of the French Algerian, Robert Cohen.

Not for years has any boxer taken the pasting that came to Kelly in the terrible second round.

af (type) ^{Sub how} ~~again~~ Kelly gets up... ^{7 fights over} The fans cry Foul, but Cohen's blow was fair. It was on the way when the bell went.

Surely Kelly's seconds will throw in the towel!

next But no, they're sending the beaten, semi-conscious youngster in for another round.

143 So the title changes hands. Yet [↑] even Cohen himself shed tears at the plight of plucky Johnny Kelly.
