

Mainz on the Rhine did its gay part to correct the impression that carnival time belongs exclusively to holiday resorts along the Mediterranean. In fact this year all Germany has got back to the pre-Hitler spirit and proved that if you want bigger and better carnivals, this is the country for you. ~~Even~~ ^{Still} more than Mainz, and further down the Rhine, carnival time ~~Worms~~ really has a fling in Cologne.

2XWomansg) Germany can ~~even~~ laugh at Adolf nowadays; a sign of recovery if ever there was one.

Even carnivals have to go on ice now; or frozen snow.

Würzburg carried the festivities on to the water. That was ~~Würzburg~~ iced up too.

Everybody was having such a good time, who did the work?