

NORWEGIAN SKI STAR WINS GIANT SLALOM

A spectacular event in the World Ski Championships at Aare, Sweden was the Giant Slalom, and well fancied was Francois Bonlieu, of France. The distance, 2,200 yards.

Stein Eriksen, the Norwegian who is Olympic Champion, won the small slalom world title three days before and <sup>now</sup> hoped to land the double. f

Brooks Dodge represented America.

And here came Bonlieu, to gain second place in 1-minute 53.7.

A good performance but just not fast enough to beat Eriksen.

He won the World Title by ~~just~~ over 1-second.

Enviied by a big crowd, a World Champion in a thrilling sport.

*

? Mention from
from G.B.