

STACK CAR RACE

Daytona Beach, where Malcolm Campbell beat world speed records, was the track for the ~~stack~~ 160-mile race for ordinary, standard cars, (Nothing not capable of 120 miles-an-hour, allowed to enter. On the natural speedway it was watch my sand, and like it.

50 The winner, Tim Flock, of Atlanta, Georgia. It'll be a bit tame for him, getting back <sup>home</sup> to a quiet ~~study~~ <sup>70</sup> or so.

Feb. 26, 1954

Music: Moto Perpetuo (Para) PN66
End Title (Fancy Pants) PN518
Blue Danube Waltz PN394

Klein
Watson
Non
Issue #56

DAYTONA BEACH, FLA. STOCK CAR GRAND NATIONAL CIRCUIT RACE

Cars of the makes you or your neighbor are driving -- competing in a 160-mile grind at Daytona Beach! This is definitely not accepted speed for local highways, but okay in the grand national circuit race for stock cars. Top qualifying speeds were better than 123 miles an hour. The curves make for tricky going -- and even the experts have their dizzying moments!

And away they go -- 160 miles of "watch my dust!" Number eighty-eight is the front runner -- and the winner! The driver is Tim Flock of Atlanta, Georgia.