

LYTTELTON SEES KENYA'S LIGHTER SIDE

Colonial Secretary Oliver Lyttelton took time out from serious business to attend the Agricultural Show at Wakamba. The cattle were not the target; these shows all the world over ~~have~~ feature amusements.

20

While bulls-eyes were being shot Field Marshal Sir John Harding spoke to native police. Sir Evelyn Baring, Governor of Kenya, announced changes in the constitution of the Colony proposed by Mr. Lyttelton, who urged all races in the country to accept them.

After that political interlude the Colonial Secretary presented the archery prizes. From that point ~~quite a display of~~ the Kamba dancers took over. A super display in the visitor's honour: ~~in a bit like a~~ ~~sls sls, yk yk, sls.~~