

Garmisch Partenkirchen, in~~z~~ the Bavarian Alps, set out to show that the recent championship meeting in Sweden was child's play compared to the standard here. In the Men's Down Hill race the first ~~man~~<sup>ones</sup> away set such a cracking pace that scarsely anybody ended the right way up.
If they were on their feet near the finish they came to grief at the post.

The best time was made by an Austrian, Ernst Oberaigner.
Even he lost his dignity at the finish.
