

FLASHES!

The 10,000<sup>ton</sup> tanker World Piece didn't quite live up to its name. It blocked the Suez Canal when it swung round and crashed the west span of the El Ferdan swing bridge, 9-miles north of Ismailia. The Bridge was built by the British Army just before the battle of Alamein. It's caused two ~~the~~ <sup>serious</sup> accidents and is to be demolished. The Canal technical director and the Port Captain organised repairs and the Suez Canal is now clear again.

The Mayor and Councillors of Lambeth saw the famous Castle of Vincennes, just outside Paris. The beautiful Chapel there was finished in 1552 when Vincennes was a royal residence. The Mayor told his host, ~~the Mayor of Vincennes~~ <sup>but</sup> that Lambeth has its own Palace, ~~residence of the Archbishop of Canterbury~~. Vincennes knows that modern Lambeth earned fame by ~~getting~~ <sup>giving</sup> all the world doing ~~the Lambeth~~ <sup>the song</sup> ~~Waltz~~ <sup>dance</sup>. Anyday you'll find them doing the Lambeth Walk - Oy!

All the local beauty Queens of the country came to Fontainebleau to compete for the title, Miss France. Miss Paris, Veronique Zuber, had a lot to beat and a lot to beat them with.

Monique Lambert, who is Miss Cote d'Azur, had to be content with second place to Mlle. Zuber, whose election was popular, <sup>though</sup> The judges <sup>was</sup> found the choice difficult, <sup>one spectacle</sup> ~~on both girls~~ ~~one was fixed both eyes~~ <sup>she can see in way 2 look</sup>

Panama, Colonel Remon, has been assassinated. The President of ~~the Republic~~

It was he who was host to the Queen when Her Majesty's ~~ship~~ liner Gothic was passing through the <sup>Panama</sup> Canal on the Royal Tour.
