

042200
b-002270

New Year's Ski-Jumping at Garnisch-Partenkirchen

(not exclusive)

The snow-fall was heavy, when on the Olympia-jumping-hill at Garnisch-Partenkirchen the traditional New-Year's Ski-jumping took place. As usual, the Finnish jumpers proved their superior ability. Based on their excellent attitude and their largest jumping-width they could secure the win.

Winner was on his 24th birthday the Finnish mechanic Aulis Kallakorpi with 2 jumps of 82 m both.

Second was Eino Kirjonen/^Finnland with 80 m and 77,5 m

Third Emmo Silvenneinen/^Finnland with 79 and 76,5 m

Fourth Sepp Hohenleitner/^Germany with 78 and 79,5 m.

Bob-Sleighbing at Garnisch-Partenkirchen

(not exclusive)

At the New-Year's day, on the Olympia bob-sleigh-course at Garnisch-Partenkirchen a 2-men bob-sleighbing took place.

Unfortunately the world-champion of 1953 in the 4-men bob-sleighbing, Lloyd Johnson, USA had such a heavy fall, that he had to be brought to the hospital with heavy wounds on his head.

The best total time had Rösch-Terne of the SC Riessersee

Second were Kitt/Leob of the BC München.