

HERBERT MORRISON WEDS

20

Rochdale Parish church was full to overflowing. 67 year old Herbert Morrison, with ~~that~~ his constituency agent as best man, was marrying a local celebrity, Miss Edith Meadowcroft. She was attended by Alderman Schofield, who gave her away; her father is no longer living. It was the biggest day in Rochdale since they gave Gracie Fields the freedom before the war. The bride and bridegroom had a real Lancashire welcome.

The reception was held at the Town Hall. ~~The tower of the~~ The tower of the parish church, in icing, surmounted the cake. ~~Mixx~~ The New Mrs. Morrison is a very good golfer, Herbert an indifferent one. She should be able to teach him a lot. Cares of state postpone the honeymoon till Easter. Meanwhile, all good luck to them ~~past~~ both.
