

FLASHES!

Dr., do you think the mother's all right? Yes, she's in excellent shape, a credit to the pig world, having just had 19 babies. The feeding problem is being met with the aid of several bottles. If their table manners aren't all they might be - well, they're very young. ~~One blessing,~~ of course a lot of feed
~~the mother~~ thanks heaven mother doesn't have to buy clothes for them.

20

357

At Bonn Dr. Adenauer was visited by ~~the~~ members of the Diplomatic Corps. They came to congratulate him on his 79th birthday, and a very young 79 he looks. His grandchildren gave a domestic air to the occasion.

70

Congratulations poured in from Dr. Adenauer's legion of admirers - eyes friends throughout the Western world.

Positano, a little resort overlooking the gulf of ~~the~~ Salerno, was visited by Prime Minister Mendes-France and his wife. The statesman had a few days rest there, but not in the sunshine. Sunny Italy rained. The Premier afterwards went to Rome to discuss with the Italian Government such things as rearming, tariffs and Italian emigration to North Africa. No man better deserved a short holiday. Positano made him very welcome.

Birthday of the Bundeskanzler

(not exclusive)

The Bundeskanzler Dr. Adenauer celebrated his 79th birthday. The diplomatists, Cardinal Dr. Frings (with cardinal's ~~hat~~) and the apostolic Nuntius Münch as well as family-members of the Bundeskanzler have appeared for congratulation.

The Bundeskanzler was in an utterly good shape, and nobody could perceive his high age.