

TITO VISITS ALL INDIA CONGRESS

200,000 people saw the opening of the 60th session of the All India Congress Committee in Madras.

200,000 people welcomed the new Congress Party President, Mr. U.N. Dhebar, at the 60th Session, held at Madras.

They greeted too a visitor from ~~the West~~ ^{Europe}, the President of Yugoslavia, Marshal Tito, whom Mr. Nehru presented

25 to the great gathering. Tito commended the ~~Indian~~ government on ~~the country's~~ ^{India's} progress. He then remained a 36 spectator while Congress speakers debated policy, the Governor of Madras explaining various points. India's main evils, Congress heard, are poverty and hunger. ^{Those,} ~~They~~ said Mr. Nehru, all Indians must combine to abolish.
