

STUDENTS HOLD UP CITY FOR CHARITY

Glasgow belongs to the students on charities day.

The Charities Queen was a pretty art student Delny Goalen.

20 She rode in royal style in the procession from Kelvin way to John Street, where Lord Provost Karr reviewed the parade. He went one better, ^{than just reviewing} and who can blame him?

50 The students claimed to be giving value for money. 600 collectors saw to it that nobody along the route got away without giving something. They did make exceptions in favour of the 2,000-odd public spirited Glaswegians who've been blood ~~donors~~ ^{donors} in the past year.

(81) (ig bliss) ^{quite} At an early stage it seemed any odds th last year's collection of 7,000 would be handsomely beaten. The students' technique of pay up or else, with entertainment thrown ⁱⁿ, has the income tax people looking like amateurs. It was a great day and, even by ~~standard~~ local standards, what a night.
