

EARL MOUNTBATTEN TAKES SANDHURST SALUTE

818 cadets, including the Duke of Kent, were inspected by Earl Mountbatten when he took the Sovereign's Parade at the Royal Military Academy, Sandhurst. Countess Mountbatten watched the ceremony.

Senior Under-Officer Dell was awarded the sword of honour as the best officer cadet of the term. The Queen's Medal went to Senior Under-Officer Leonard, first in order of merit.

Earl M. b how satisfactory it is that so many cadets at Sandhurst.

Soverign's Parades at Sandhurst end with the march into the Academy, the Adjutant traditionally mounted..... ~~Which way to~~

~~the dining room?~~