

DUKE ATTENDS VARIETY CLUB LUNCHEON

Life member of the Variety Club, the Duke of Edinburgh, heard from Chief Barker, Colonel Carreras, of achievements by the entertainment world's charity club.

That cheque, for 1015-pounds, was received by Dockland Settlement Warden, Major McNay. Then it was time for the conjuring comic, Tommy Cooper.

The ham-handed

*psychiatrist's nightmare son
at various occasions
d an distinguished helpers Never by a nd one*