	According to an ancient tradition, every year various manifestations take place at Viareggio during Carnival season. The most important of these manifestations is a parade of floats which are for the most part allegorical and which file along the main streets and the water front. as usual large crowds gathered for the occasion lined the edges of the streets and viewed the parade in a gay holiday mood. The prettiest boys and girls of the region fancily dressed in costumes took place on the floats dancing and singing. This Carnival manifestation is considered the foremost in the world and the artisans of this small city have specialized themselves in the construction of the huge floats (allegorical or otherwise) which take part in the parade.
	ATTENTION: This story should have taken place on February 6th. It was postponed to February 13th because of bad weather and I myself being at Cortina d'Ampezzo for the International Winter Games, the story had to be covered by a free lance operator.
