

FLASHES

The Malta referendum appears to have decided nothing.

Mass meetings heard speakers whipping up enthusiasm, for or against the proposal to send three members to the 20 Westminster Parliament. The Metropolitan Archbishop strongly opposed this integration with Britain, convincing his flock that it would harm the Catholic Church. Mabel 3 5 Strickland, Progressive Party leader, and the Opposition leader, Dr. Borg Olivier, are on this issue lining up with the Archbishop against integration. However, a big majority voted in favour, ( But only 60% went to the polls. ~~at~~ \
