

RUGBY IRELAND BEAT SCOTLAND

Very appropriate Ireland Captain N. J. Henderson opened the score at Lansdowne Road Dublin against Scotland. A beautiful try far out. Not converted.

27
The second Irish try was a brilliant effort by the left-
~~hand~~ centre, A. J. O'Reilly

37
Just before half-time Scotland nearly equalised. E. J. S. Michie scored the Try. Tom Mc Clung converted.

↙ Ireland six, Scotland five at half-time. Anybody's game.

73
Ireland's next try was scored by scrum-half Johnny O'Meara. This time A. C. Pedlow added the goal points.

102
Perhaps The best bit of play of the afternoon came when McDonald passed to his wing-man Swan, who gave the ball to the Scottish right-wing, the brilliant Cambridge blue, Arthur Smith.... Once again Tom McClung converted.

Ireland only one point ahead. Then the great Jack Kyle scored the clinching try.