

BOYS' CLUBS CHAMPS ARE DYNAMITE

W. Dodd and M. A. Quinn in the last round of their tear away bout in class A, 8-stone. It was championships night, at the Albert Hall, for the London Federation of Boys' Clubs.

(one out) Dodd was the winner. He boxes for Lion Club, Shoreditch.

Class C. 10stone, 7. B. Penn seemed much too good for J. H. Mansfield, of Eaton Manor, Club, Hackney. Penn belongs to Caius College Mission, Battersea.

(Next) The referee stopped the fight in round two and declared Penn the winner.

R. J. Beaman seemed a bit nervous. F.H. King (ano boy

of the Lion Club
~~F. H. King (ano boy from Lion Club) was the better~~

95
~~of the Lion Club~~ Beaman, from the Robert Browning Institute, Southwark. ~~X~~ The referee warned against punching low.

In the second round the referee decided that Beaman's cut eye was too bad for him to continue. So King was the winner. No wonder

For Beaman took it so badly he shed tears. It was an evening of the toughest, pluckiest boxing seen for a long time. It all round,
