

MANCHESTER CITY BEAT EVERTON

76,000 at Maine Road saw the great Lancashire sixth round derby, Manchester City versus Everton. And how City survived the Toffee's relentless, non-stop bombardment only that wizard goal keeper Trautmann will ever know. This German born local hero never played better.

20

5-2
Somehow City kept Everton score in the first half down to one goal. Everton centre forward Jim Hartis, wandering on the wing, fired in a shot even Trautmann failed to stop.

88
In the second half Manchester City showed the form that took them to Wembley last year. Everton began to regret that they'd missed first half opportunities. Everton keeper O'Neill seemed to fumble from a free kick. The ball went to City inside flight Hayes. He scored.

25

On the Everton right wing Brian Harris almost did a Stanley Matthews act, but overdid it.

148
Trautmann had an easier time this half.

~~148~~
The winning goal came to City 15 minutes from the final whistle. Roy Clarke centred; Johnstone banged it home.