SIR ANTHONY EDEN'S SPEECH

SV I am very glad of this opportunity to welcome, I am sure on the behalf of the whole British people, M. Mollet, Prime Minister of France.

[The relations between our two countries are those of allies, of friends and of partners. It ~~has~~ is always good that, from time to time, we should talk matters over together. It oughtn't to be an exceptional event but a regular event and so it is on this occasion, and I cordially welcome the Prime Minister of France. I shall ask him to speak to you.]

M. MOLLET'S SPEECH

[LV ~~It is very~~ ^{SV ✓} to say how happy I am to be once again in England where I have many friends and so many happy memories.

The Prime Minister of Great Britain, Sir Anthony, and I ^{are going to have talks} which will ^{certainly result} in strengthening the alliance and tightening the bonds ^{of friendship} between our two countries.]

I wish to say how grateful I am to the British Ambassador in France - - of the support in the United Kingdom which we are facing ~~today~~ this very moment in North Africa.

[I wish to say that the French Government and myself are fully aware of the close ties which link Her Majesty's Government and - - - in the world today.]
