A miraculous spectacle.....spectacles for hens ! Length: 57 M.

Everybody knows that hens often fight, even when they have enough food.

When a hen is seriously wounded, the others will go on until it's dead !

A Dutch poultry-owner now has discovered something to restore peace in the chicken-house: spectacles for hens !

They are made of aluminium, and are fastened on the bill with a little pin, a painless treatment.

When a hen ~~fight~~ wants to fight now, she turns her head to her "victim" and....does not see her anymore.

Look those short-sighted "chic's"!

Every day 10.000 of those aluminium spectacles are made, and the results: Armistice in the Chicken-run !
