

MALENKOV PRESS CONFERENCE

20 Three hundred reporters and cameramen jammed the reception room at the Russian Embassy for Mr. Malenkov's Press Conference; For seventy five minutes questions were fired at him. His adroit replies were afterwards translated by the interpreter. As Russia has nothing resembling a Press Conference in the Western sense of the term Mr. Malenkov came out of the ordeal well; ~~the~~

~~and~~
A Canadian asked which nation, barring a war, would lead the world technologically in a hundred years time.

MALENKOV

We have enjoyed our stay here, we hope we have also left a good impression here, and we came to this hall in the warm and friendly welcome awarded to us wherever we went.

CU (In Russian)

~~There may be some persons who do not like the growing contacts between our two countries and peoples here. We realise that it is a small flock which has no black sheep and we hope that the black sheep does not reflect the feelings of the general people.~~

Well I don't believe anyone who is present here will predict what will happen in a hundred years from now.

(In Russian)

Only we take the question of peaceful competition, of economic competition. Well, naturally we would like to win this competition and I believe this will happen within a hundred years from now.

Whitehall 5454

Whitehall 2737

Trafalgar 5161