AUSTRALIANS LOOSEN UP

20

It was ^a two-sweater ^{day} ~~weather~~ at Lords. M.C.C. President Lord Alexander and Secretary Aird watched the Australians, skipper Ian Johnson at the head, trying the ^{feel} ~~touch~~ of English turf. Right-hand-man to Johnson is the great Keith Miller, the vice-captain. [Richie Benaud, New South Wales all-rounder, we already know well.

Neil Harvey, now 27, is perhaps the touring side's best bat. ~~Edmund~~

Lindwall, ^{at} ~~now~~ 34, is still a great fast bowler and a fine bat.

Lengthy Pat Crawford, another fast bowler, is suspected of foot-drag. * The Australians rate their chances at 50-50, better if it's a hot summer.
