

Mille Miglia

Last year's winner Stirling Moss met his friendly rival the great Fangio in the Italian 1,000-Mile, the Mille Miglia. Peter Collins/~~was~~ was in the Ferrari team. Now Moss was away in his Maserati.

Eugenio Castellotti (also Ferrari) was out to fulfil the dream of every Italian racing driver and win the great race.

Heavy rain made fast times out of the question, so there was no chance that even Stirling Moss would equal his 97-average of last year.

(4 out)

At the finish Castellotti's dream came true. He was the winner at 85.4 m.p.h. The first five places all went to Ferraris. Peter Collins was second. A great performance.

85